

CITY JOTTINGS.

THE new Presbyterian Church will be dedicated in a few days.

THE second saddle is said to be weary of stabling its imported jack.

FIRST-CLASS woman cook can find an engagement in this city. See wants.

TICKETS are out for the sociable at Husey's Hall next Monday evening.

THE death of the Prophet will abate the divorce case now pending in the District Court.

A MARBLE floor has been laid in the Occidental saloon on First South street.

GEORGE A. and George Q. are pressing their claims for the success on. Neither will get it.

CONFERENCE begins next Tuesday, wind and weather permitting. Enoch won't be there.

CODMAN is the fellow rightly named, who has been blarneying the Lord's people. Keep on John while it pays.

DECEMBER seventh is said to be the day on which Judas Iscariot was born, but that won't make any difference.

MOUNTAIN herring are in the market, varying in size from that of a sardine to a small whale. They have the odor of smelts.

Two children are said to have died on Third South street recently, through neglect. The particulars we are unable to obtain.

A GENTLEMAN who came over from Colville yesterday, counted fifty wagons on the road loaded with black diamonds.

For a specimen of bungled architecture, see the house of a certain bishop in this city. The front looks like the Decret Alphabet, but more so.

A FLAGSTAFF is being raised on the roof of the Federal Court House, to float a magnificent starry ensign furnished by Uncle Samuel for his Utah subjects.

PLU hat brigades are now being formed in the towns of Nebraska and Wyoming. The boys prefer them by reason of their having more capacity for carrying bricks.

THE young Mormons in Logan and Fraaktin are kicking out of the traces and asserting their manhood. When the young men awaken to the situation in Utah, the day of priestly rule is at an end.

ANY jack-Mormon lawyer (hilk) indebted to this office, has our free leave to abuse THE TRIBUNE in any court of the Territory, if he will first call and settle the account. Verbum sat!

A JUSTICE of the peace at Bingham, yesterday, had three civil actions, two criminal suits, one of which was an abduction of a negress by a Chinaman, and our informant says it was one of Judge Minceer's easy days.

A REQUISITION from the Executive of Wyoming has been applied for, to allow the arrest of a Utah culprit in that Territory. One Mahon, the accused, is charged with the crime of forgery in this county.

OUR Brother Penrose is again looking for THE TRIBUNE to die. When news gets dull, he fills out his scant columns by prophesying our approaching demise. Isn't this thing getting monotonous.

THE Crismon coal mine, in Chalk Creek Canyon, owned by Groesbeck & Crismon, is now turning out fifty tons per day. New hoisting works are being erected, and the daily yield is expected to be increased to 300 tons a day. The vein is eighteen feet thick, and is looking fine.

THE Junction man, by fabrication and otherwise, has convinced the Profit he is sound on the Mormon question. Old members of the Church, however, still think he is a spy in the camp, and caution the Profit to beware of Charles. Vile deceit is hidden under his loud protestations.

OUR Grandmother is taking a painful interest in journalistic necrology. She haunts the remains of the defunct newspapers which come like shadows so depart in Zion, like Niobe, all tears. These all appeared to be dried from want of support. When our female relative passes in her checks, it will be from want of brains.

THE Conference commences on Tuesday next. Last Conference the Prophet assured his followers that Congress would not pass the Poland bill, and the cursed scoundrels who were crowding into Zion would not drive the Saints out just yet. It is doubtful whether Brigham will live till Tue-day, but if his life should be spared, he will be careful how he airs his prophetic lore in future.
