

CITY JOTTINGS.

HEAVY snow and rain storm in Zion, last night.

UTAH strawberries will be ready for the smothering cream in about a week.

RAYBOLD has received Demorest's Monthly, Revue de la Mode and the Galaxy.

THE Virginia Enterprise says: "Mormon dancing parties in Utah are opened with prayer and closed with a free fight."

THERE are twenty one prisoners in the Utah Penitentiary. There will be twenty two when the Man of Mountain Meadows gets there.

WE call the attention of our readers to an extract taken from an article published in the Mormon paper at Provo. They can make their own comments.

COOL IMPRESSION—Brigham Young ordering the Nauvoo Legion to drill, and then asking the Gentiles through his Second Fiddle, to get up a meeting and pronounce it all a lie.

IT is amusing to see Grandmother gnash her gums and swear in Deseret alphabet, over the great truths THE TRIBUNE is sending to the world about the Mountain Meadows Church.

BY a gentleman from Tooele, we learn that preparations are being made to extend the Utah Western road to Stockton. It is anticipated that the cars will be running to that point in a few weeks.

THE sub committee to make collections for the anti-Mormon cause at Park City, is composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. P. Kerwin, Austin Chambers, Wm. Bennett, John Papp and D. Dignan.

WHY has the Prophet and his fellow Thugs gone to Logan three or four days before the time set for that meeting? Because they want to review the Nauvoo Legion of Cache county before they preach.

WHEN Brigham Young's Thugs were destroying Engelbrecht's property in Salt Lake, did the Herald protest against the devilish act? Did it tell the Gentile merchants that Brigham Young was ruining business and injuring credit abroad?

GRANDMOTHER likes her mug of beer, but we never knew that she loved whiskey-punches till we saw the fact announced in her advertising columns last evening. Under that big red nose of hers is painted in no-mistaken letters, "Holiness to the Lord, Zion's Whiskey-Punch mill."

A UTAH miner who has recently been East endeavoring to place property, says capitalists refuse to invest in Utah mines. They say so long as the Mormons practice polygamy and live in open defiance of the laws of the United States, there is no safety here for investments, and while they acknowledge Utah has the largest and richest mines, they prefer the Black Hills and the Indians to Utah and the Mormons.
